Vendor information for Albany County Department for Aging

Mission Statement:

Our mission is to connect adults age 60+ and their families/caregivers with community resources that promote independence, self-direction, dignity, and improved quality of life.

About us:

Albany County Department for Aging is one of 59 Area Agencies on Aging in New York State and part of the national aging network, which supports and implements comprehensive in-home and community-based services with special focus on those with the greatest social and economic needs. Our programs and services are made possible through funding from Albany County, the New York State Office for the Aging, U.S. Administration on Aging, participant contributions, and volunteers who generously donate their time.

We are committed to providing access to a comprehensive and coordinated system of supports and services, including:

- information & assistance
- home-delivered meals
- adult daycare
- caregiver support programs
- congregate meals
- nutrition counseling
- in-home health services
- volunteer opportunities
